LAST ROUND OF TRIAL EC IN TANVALD

For the second time in two years, the last round of the Trial European Championship, after the cancellation of the Myslenice round, was held at Tanvald, in North Czech Republic, where there is a perfect area into a forest, rich of natural obstacles. All the sections became tougher for the heavy rain dropped in the night before.

In the Europe class, Alfredo Gomez (Montesa) was one of the first rider to start and had the hard task to open all the sections. Nevertheless this inconvenient duty, his score after the first lap was very good: 24 points. Challoner and Matteo Grattarola (Gas Gas) were controlled each others. Grattarola took a smooth advantage, climbing the high inclined wall in section 8, but fived section 10 and 11, the last for having lightly touched a mark. This fact discouraged him so much as conditioning his successive riding. Challoner on the contrary started to feel more confident as never. At the turning point Challoner led, scoring 21, two points less than Gomez. Grattarola' score of 32, plus 3 points of delay sounded as a sign of surrender. In the second lap, Gomez replied the good performance delivering his card with 24 mistakes, but Challoner made even better: only 19! That meant victory and title. Grattarola, with a little bit of pride, scored 23, but was too late to avoid of yielding the second place in the championship to Gomez. Indeed thanks to the runner-up position of today, both reach 90 points, but the Spanish rider has one more second place.

Between the Juniors Sheppard mortgaged his win and title with a masterpiece first lap, just 5 marks! Nothing to do for Giacomo Saleri (Beta), sometimes not so calm and cool as the British one. Saleri finished behind him today and kept the second place in the final standings. Thanks to the third place of today, Steven Coquelin (Gas Gas) overtook Cedric Tempier, not present here, and occupied the final third place.

Winner today and second behind the already Over 40 champion, Andrea Buschi, was Finnish Staffan Floessel (Sherco). Third in the championship Dutch John Van Veelen (Ossa), who arrived runner-up, ahead of the last year champion, at his first competition this year, Sweden Magnus Lijebblad (Sherco).

In the day before it was held the third and last round of the Women and Youth Championship. Spanish Pluri-champion Laia Sanz(Montesa) won again and clinched her tenth European title. Second place for Emma Bristow (Ossa), who beat country mate Rebekah Cook (Sherco).

Between the Youths crown to French Steven Coquelin (Gas Gas) only third in this last round, beaten by Norwegian Sverre Lundevold (Beta) and Italian Gabriele Giarba(Beta), both followed him in the final championship standings.
