

JARVIS to join KNIGHT and WALKER facing BLAZUSIAK!

The final event of the FIM SuperEnduro World Championship on the 9th of March in Tours will be worth its weight in gold! Besides being the final event with a World Champion title to be won, the promoter and the organisers are doing their best to add to a menu already rich with highly skilled riders!

Graham JARVIS, official Husaberg rider (since the summer of 2012) has made a last minute entry for the event. The British star's entry has been made possible thanks to the efforts of Husaberg Director Mr Oliver GOEHRING who believes a lot in the SuperEnduro and in which, he now has an impressive official team...

Graham JARVIS was born in April 1975 in Ripon, North Yorkshire in Great Britain is well known in the Trials world where he collected many titles:

- 9 victories in the Scottish Six Days Trials, 5 times British Champion, 28 podiums in the Trials World Championship with 5 Grand Prix victories, 4 Trials of Nations wins plus 1 Australian title...

Managed by former champion Malcolm RATHMELL and from 2007 onwards, Graham JARVIS went progressively to Enduro where his continually refined technical approach has made him considered to be the current N°1 in Extreme Enduro races!

As the undisputed master of Extreme Enduro races, Graham JARVIS is also fast at SuperEnduro races thanks to his Trials technical skills refined even further by Enduro races all over the world, as evidenced by his successes in both the Roof of Africa (South Africa) and the Red Bull Sea to Sky (Turkey).

His participation at Tours will be a spectacle on its own as Graham JARVIS is always thirsty for victory! With David KNIGHT and Jonny WALKER, Graham JARVIS will form the third part of a British team who are committed to break Taddy BLAZUSIAK's current SuperEnduro supremacy!

An American Comes To Tours...

A great surprise for the final of the FIM SuperEnduro World Championship at Tours, France next Saturday (March 9th) is that brilliant young American Kyle REDMOND (KTM) will be a "Guest star" at the event and will battle with all the usual European riders for the win....

Kyle REDMOND is one of the best American Extreme Enduro riders. He is quite used to Endurocross, which is effectively SuperEnduro but USA style! He managed his first lap at the age of 3 on a PW 50 and after many years of "Trail Riding" the Californian racer from Lake Hugues took part in his first race at the age of only 17, while many rivals already had many seasons of experience behind them. He immediately showed real positivity and made rapid progress by lining up for his first Baja desert race. His riding style is much more suited to technical terrain however. A riding style that he has gradually refined with the advice of his friend Kurt CASELLI, another U.S. rider who is well known in Europe.

Quite reserved in the Paddock, this young 24 year old American (born 14/06/1988 in Burbank, California) shows a sharp contrast on the track where his fighting spirit and sense of control are amazing.

Kyle REDMOND began Endurocross in 2010 with a promising fifth place overall in the American Championship (2nd in Indianapolis). He finished 7th in 2011 and after a difficult season in 2012 (also 7th) he is highly motivated for 2013. For this event, he will be looked after by the RPM Racing Team and will be riding a KTM on MAXXIS tyres.

Kyle REDMOND loves to travel and has already taken part in other European extreme events such as Red Bull Romaniacs (4th) and the Erzberg Rodeo in Austria (5th) where he had the opportunity to battle with Taddy BLAZUSIAK, the current SuperEnduro championship leader. Taddy BLAZUSIAK considers Kyle REDMOND as one of the most promising riders in this sport... He will also team up with Taddy BLAZUSIAK in Tours and it is the Official KTM Racing Team that will provide the talented Californian a KTM 350 factory bike!

Can Kyle REDMOND score his first career podium? ... Will it become reality on March 9th at Tours?
